

A gathering hosted by

Marist
ASSOCIATION OF
ST MARCELLIN CHAMPAGNAT

Putting Out into Deep Water: A Conversation with Dr. James Nickoloff

He said to Simon, 'Put out into deep water and lower your nets for a catch'
Luke 5:4

An invitation to participate in a dynamic and open conversation with American theologian Dr James Nickoloff. Drawing on art, tradition and imagination, and tapping into our doubts, convictions, passions and deeper questions we will explore what sustains us and gives us hope as people of God today and in the future.

Wednesday 27 March

9.00am – 3.30pm

Marist Centre Melbourne

1 Dawson Street, Brunswick

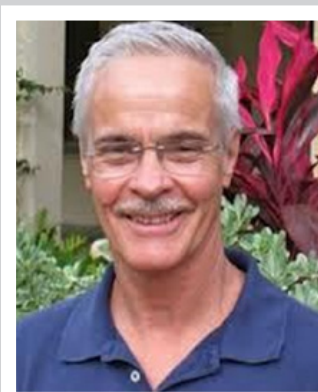

(Parking available off Michael Street, Brunswick. Call Grace once in Michael Street on 93893100)

Cost: $80 (includes lunch & morning tea)
Payable by cash on the day, or bank transfer:

RSVP: grace.johnstone@marists.org.au
with any dietary requirements.

BSB: 063 147
ACC: 1012 8932
Reference: MCM

Limited to 42 guests, so please reply to Grace by Friday 8 March.

Jim (James) Nickoloff is the Director of Ministerial Formation at Barry University in Miami, Florida. His doctoral thesis was framed around the ecclesiology of Gustavo Gutierrez, considered by many to be the founder of Latin American liberation theology.

Jim has been a regular speaker in Catholic circles in Australia over the last decade. He is working with staff and parents in various school communities across Australia in the month of March, and has kindly agreed to lead this conversation at the Marist Centre in Brunswick.