

Redress One Year On Tuesday Lunchtime Speaker - Series 2 July 2019

CARROLL
& O'DEA
LAWYERS

When it matters

ACCEPT

DECLINE

Redress One Year On

The National Redress Scheme was introduced following recommendations by the Royal Commission into Institutional Child Sexual Abuse. It is now approaching the first 12 months of its operation. What have we learned over this time and what can we expect for the future of the Scheme?

WHEN

Tuesday 2 July 2019 from 1pm till 2pm
Light lunch and refreshments from 12.30pm

WHERE

Carroll & O'Dea, Level 20, 111 Elizabeth Street, Sydney

RSVP

To book please contact
Belinda Boutsikakis, Event Coordinator
bboutsikakis@codea.com.au or 9291 7152
Please RSVP by Friday 28 June

About the speakers

Howard Harrison is Managing Partner of Carroll & O'Dea Lawyers.

Howard has a strong commitment to assisting the not-for-profit sector. He is the practice group leader of the not-for-profit litigation group.

Bill Madden is an accredited specialist in personal injury law and as Special Counsel with Carroll & O'Dea Lawyers he focuses on medical and abuse litigation. He is a co-author of a pending text on abuse litigation and redress, due for publication by Lexis Nexis before October 2019.

Alex Collie is an invaluable member of the Commissions of Inquiry and Litigation Team at Carroll & O'Dea Lawyers. Alex has a wealth of experience in litigation and the integration of technology which ensures a fast, efficient and accurate handling of mass claims.

He takes advantage of his technical background in law and technology to assist the Commissions of Inquiry and Litigation Team in producing systems and workflows to produce efficient and accurate solutions for his clients.