

Shaping the Future of the Catholic Church – A Symposium

1.00pm	Registration
1.15 pm	Welcome and Acknowledgment of Country and of Victims and Survivors of Abuse Lindsay Gardner is a survivor of clerical child sexual abuse. He lives in the Maitland-Newcastle area and is a father and grandfather.
1.30-2.00pm	Vatican II expectations compared with its real and unexpected consequences for governance. What the child sexual abuse crisis has taught us. Massimo Faggioli, Ph.D. – Professor of Theology and Religious Studies Villanova University Governance and the Ecclesiology of Vatican II
2.00-2.30pm	Response and then Q/A Q &amp; A session following a response from an audience member expert
2.30-3.00pm	Theology for a Future-Orientated Church: Surveying the Possibilities Professor Richard Lennan, Ph. D. – Professor of Systematic Theology, Boston College
3.00pm-3.30pm	Response and then Q/A Q &amp; A session following a response from an audience member expert
3.30-3.45pm	Afternoon Tea
3.45-4.15pm	Co-Workers in the Vineyard of the Lord: Envisioning Participative Engagement and Structures in a True Missionary and Synodal Church Myriam Wijlens, Ph. D. – Professor for Canon Law at the Faculty of Catholic Theology, University of Erfurt
4.15-4.45pm	Response and then Q/A Q &amp; A session following a response from an audience member expert
4.45pm	Thank you and close