

Your expertise and enthusiasm for excellence in Catholic education is needed

Expression of interest for membership of work groups on Catholic education

The Committee of Religious Institute and Ministerial PJP School Authorities Australia (CORMSAA) is regularly asked by the National Catholic Education Commission (NCEC) and other bodies to nominate people for membership of workgroups relevant to Catholic Education. At other times CORMSAA may form its own work groups.

The expertise of both Religious Institute and Ministerial PJP schools adds a perspective that complements that of the Diocesan schools as we work together in the mission of Catholic education.

Examples of time-limited work groups were:

- Political Advocacy Taskforce – analysing the impact of political party policies on Catholic education

Examples of current work groups or standing committees are:

- NCEC Maths Group – contribute the perspective of RI-MPJP school authorities and reports to CORMSAA
- NCEC Enrolment Committee
- Educational Excellence
- Faith Formation and Religious Education

Examples of emerging areas shared interest and advocacy:

- Funding
- Boarding Programs
- Health and Wellbeing
- Workforce sustainability
- Mental
