

(10) AMPJP Code of Conduct

a) Context

The Association of Ministerial Public Juridic Persons (AMPJP) is guided by the following eleven principles¹:

1. Christocentric - Jesus Christ is our role model in life and leadership.
2. Courageous - Our mission and integrity are advanced even through conflict, resistance and difficulty.
3. Stewardship - All we have is a gift from God to be used wisely and we hold ourselves accountable for our actions as stewards of these gifts.
4. Transparent - Our activities, processes and outcomes are made known to stakeholders.
5. Collegial - Our preference is team work within our organisation and with partner organisations.
6. In communion with the rest of the Church - Coordination and communication characterise our relationship with the rest of the Church.
7. Open to learning - The status quo does not stop us from drawing on wisdom from all sources in pursuit of continuous improvement.
8. Preferential option for poor - Assisting those experiencing poverty of any kind is our first priority.
9. Respectful - We uphold the dignity of all people and of the rest of nature.
10. Servant leadership - The needs and development of others are placed before our own status and comfort.
11. Subsidiarity - Decision-making and necessary resources are devolved to the most appropriate level so as to foster dignity, autonomy and participation.

The AMPJP's Code of Conduct seeks to more clearly state how these principles apply to the behaviours of an individual.

The AMPJP does not currently provide direct services to children or adults at risk. However, this Code makes reference to children or adults at risk as it is possible that AMPJP personnel make encounter them in the course of their activities.

The Code complements other documents of the Catholic Church, notable the framework for ministry and service: Our Common Mission.

The Code should be read alongside the AMPJP's other policies, especially the AMPJP Safeguarding Policy and Complaint Handling Policy.
